

Banner Information

You can submit your banners to BBQads.com via email as an attachment. Or you can post your banner or banners on the Internet and email us the URL. If you do not have the ability to create your own banners we can create your banners for you. We charge a nominal fee of $50.00 for most banners we create. However, the banners we produce can cost more money depending on the parameters you have us work with. The $50.00 charge for banners cover most designs, On more complicated banners (if requested by the clients) are billed at $50.00 per hour.

Once your banners have been received at BBQads.com we will check to be sure all banners comply to our standards. We will verify that the URL's that you want your banners to point to are active. If you do not have a web page we can create a web page for you. Or we can create a simple one page web page for you at a low cost. All banners and links must be about BBQ equipment, books, events, sauces, rubs and such related barbecue products.

Banner Specifications

- Animated gif's are accepted. No looping allowed.
- The total file size of your banners should be as small as possible. Not more than 50k is a good rule.
- The banners should be 728 X 90 pixels or 468 X 60 pixels. All of our sites are optimized to display the larger banners and you should take advantage of this.

Banner Suitability and Compliance

We reserve the right to refuse any banner that is submitted to us for inclusion that does not meet our specifications or standards.

We accept no advertising that is not our BBQ related. We encourage all of our advertisers to take part in the BBQ Forum but it is important to understand that advertisers have no special privileges. Messages posted by the BBQ Forum must comply with the rules of the BBQ Forum, or they will be deleted. The advertiser will be notified that their post to the BBQ forum was improper and if it happens again their advertising will be removed from the entire network.
